

Chippokes Plantation
State Park
February 2018
Interpretive Programs

Educational Outreach

Can't make it out to the park? Let the park come to you! A park interpreter can conduct an exciting interactive program on many SOL-based topics. Specifically designed explorations available to enhance SOL lessons. Please allow several weeks for collaboration with park staff to best meet the needs of your classroom prior to our visit. Registration fees vary.

Geocaching at Chippokes

Try your treasure hunting skills with a real-world outdoor treasure hunting game. GPS rentals are available year round at the Visitor Center for $6/four hours or $10/eight hours. The GPS Units must be returned before the Visitor Center closes. Visit <http://www.geocache.com> for a complete listing of the hidden coordinates in our park.

Park Packs

A Park Pack will help you explore the park on your own. There is no fee to check out a pack! The park packs can be picked up at the Visitor Center and must be returned before the Visitor Center closes.

Corn Husk Dolls

Before the wonders of electronics and mass-produced toys, children would have to find ways to make their own fun. This often took forms in making up new games, or even creating their own dolls with the supplies that were available. Take a step back in time as you learn how to create a doll of your own using corn husks. Meet in the Quayle Classroom at the Farm and Forestry Museum.

Discover the Trace

Discover what is left of an historic roadway through the plantation. Meet at the Farm and Forestry Museum parking lot.

Eagle Walk

Join a ranger to try and spot these majestic birds as they soar in the sky. Meet at the Visitor Center.

Fossil Walk

Calling all fossil seekers! Join an interpreter for an adventure through the abundant fossil beds at Chippokes. Meet in the Farm and Forestry Museum parking lot.

Hearth Cooking

See how much work it took to run a plantation in the 1800s by visiting our antebellum brick kitchen. Meet at the Brick Kitchen next to the Jones-Stewart Mansion.

Jones-Stewart Mansion Tours

The Jones-Stewart Mansion is a stunning example of an antebellum plantation house, built in 1854. The home offers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of two families, the Jones's and the Stewarts. Meet on the back porch of the Jones-Stewart Mansion.

Pasture Pals

Have you ever wondered why donkeys have such long ears or why pigs like to roll in the mud? Learn this and more when you meet our ambassador animals for Pasture Pals. Meet at the Farm and Forestry Museum parking lot.

River House Tour

Come explore our 1830s River House. Meet in the Farm and Forestry Museum parking lot.

Waterfowl Prowl

Discover what migratory birds might be taking refuge in our bay. Meet at Visitor Center.
